BACTERIOLOGIST HELPS DEFENSE IN BOWEN TRIAL

Other Witnesses Say "Carrier" Spread Typhoid

An expert in bacteriology and public health matters testified in circuit court this morning that evidence on hand indicates that last summer's typhoid epidemic in Manteno State hospital was not caused by contaminated water.

Dr. Lloyd Arnold, professor of bacteriology of the University of Illinois and member of the Chicago board of health. He was called to the witness stand by attorney for State Welfare Director Archie L. Bowen, on trial for palpable omission of duty prior to the epidemic which caused 60 deaths.

Expressing his opinion, the professor referred to charts and maps which had been prepared for State's Attorney Samuel H. Shapiro but not introduced in evidence by the prosecution. They had been introduced, however, by the defense during cross-examination of Dr. C. Milton Eberhart, a witness for the prosecution who is supervisor of the state department of public health and who prepared the charts and maps.

Details on Chart

The map purports to be one of the state hospital showing the location of the buildings, how many persons became ill in each building, and the dates of their illness.

The chart purports to show the number of persons taken ill of typhoid, whether they were employees of the institution or inmates, and the dates of illness.

In amplification of his opinion that these charts and maps show that the epidemic was not water-borne, Dr. Arnold said:

"If the epidemic was water-borne you would expect to see a more sudden onset, with a large number of cases in the first few days, and with a larger number of inmates than employees with the disease."

Supports Defense

The defense has previously shown that most of the persons who first came down with typhoid were employees rather than inmates, this being complementary to the defense theory that "Typhoid Mary" Ores, a patient who died of typhoid, was the origin of the epidemic.

The defense claims that the restaurant employees became sick first, that the inmates became sick because they who had contact with "Typhoid Mary" who was sick when she was readmitted to the hospital June 12 after a parole period in Chicago.

Professor Arnold's opinion was preceded by detailed testimony as to various kinds of bacteria, how typhoid is transmitted and its symptoms.

3 Water Factors

He said three factors must be considered in determining whether water was the first human consumption. The first and most important, he said, is clinical evidence as to whether the water has caused any illness.

The second factor, he continued, is the sanitary engineer's report on the water shed—the source of water, type of soil, type of community, number of people living in it, and the like. The third factor to be considered, he said, is laboratory analysis.

Continuing in this vein, he said

Suicide, Beaten

John T. Gerry (without glasses) ex-official of a leading New York city gallery, who has been involved in a financial scandal, is a suicide, and Milton B. Logan, former president of the firm, is recovering from a mysterious beating. Gerry killed himself in his Garden City, L. I., home. Logan was found, battered and disheveled, wandering on a New York street. He did not explain his condition. Both men were indicted last November on charges of defrauding clients.

TELLS WHAT RED CROSS IS DOING IN WAR ZONES

Speaker Says Civilians Suffering Most in This War

A picture of the suffering in devastated areas of Poland and Finland was presented by Lawrence Ryan of St. Louis, national representative of the Red Cross, in a talk before the county chapter Tuesday noon in the Masonic temple.

The European war scene to date has been unique in that civilian populations have suffered more from the soldiers—at the front, Ryan stated. Mass evacuations of populations from congested areas because of fear of aerial attack has caused much distress, particularly among

N. Y. Police Confronted With Mysterious Case

By EARL B. STEELE

New York, Feb. 21.—(UP)—A mysterious assault on an art dealer and the suicide of his wealthy partner, both of whom had been charged with defrauding clients, and their relationship with a news dealer, the cousin of a gangster, were involved today in the mysterious affairs of the American Art association—Anderson Galleries, Inc.

Once this was the most famous art house in the country, doing a $2,000,000 a year business in the city's masterpieces.

Today, Milton B. Logan, its former president, was in a hospital with a fractured skull and John T. Gerry, former secretary-treasurer, was a suicide.

A news dealer, John (Red) Poggi, cousin of Louie (the bump) Poggi, notorious killer of prohibition days, had been identified by Logan as the man who hit him on the head with an iron pipe but Logan said he didn't know how Poggi figured in the case or why Poggi assaulted

CANDIDATES ON COUNTY TICKET ARE POPULAR

Great Response By Public for the Republicans

Immediate enthusiastic public response to the filing this week of a Republican county ticket for the primaries on April 9 was reported by members of the Kankakee County Republican Central committee.

The candidates are:

For state's attorney—Joseph J. Tolson.

For circuit clerk—Albert V. Terrell.

For coroner—Ed Madison.

The Republican precinct committeemen from all over the county reported that the general public is especially pleased with the individual popularity of the candidates and that Republican voters are impressed by the fact that each of them has been a consistently loyal party worker over a period of years.

All Good Workers

All the candidates have in fact, been active workers in behalf of Republicanism in good years and bad without thought of personal reward.

This is the first time Mr. Tolson has sought any public office. The son of Joe Tolson, who for years has been one of the most loyal and active Republican workers in Kankakee county, he is a successful young attorney who has worked unselfishly in behalf of the party ever since his graduation from law school.

Mr. Terrell, member of a prominent Kankakee county family whose home originally was in Bourbonnais, is finishing his law term at Chicago law school. He has made a fine record in one of the most important offices of the county and likewise is a true Republican.

Never Held Office

Everyone connected in any way with the Republican organization in this county is familiar with the efforts of Ed Madison in its behalf. No one has been a more loyal and active worker than he. He is chairman of the Young Republican clubs but has likewise given his time and effort to the programs of all the Republican groups. He has never held a salaried public office.

These candidates have the unqualified endorsement of all the Republican committeemen and committeewomen and of other party leaders.

Miss Jessie Sumner of Milford, present congresswoman of the 18th district, is the Republican candidate for reelection.

Miss Sumner has made an unusually fine record for a first-term legislator, dispelling all doubt as to whether a woman can represent the district as well as a man. She has consistently opposed all legislation against the interests of the farmer, and wage-earner and through these efforts has made many new friends in the district.

Distinguished Career

Louis E. Beckman of Kankakee, Republican candidate for reelection as state senator of the 20th district, has had a long and distinguished career in public service and for his party.

He began his career in public life as a precinct committeeman, then succeeded to a member of the county board, mayor, state representative and state senator, serving in the legislature while former Governor Len Small was in office.

He has made an outstanding record for accomplishment as representative and senator and has obtained a great deal of benefit for his district.

Has Chinese Idol Carved Out Of Coal

Denis D. Drolet of 1147 South Nelson avenue is displaying a Chinese idol received by him from his brother the Rev. Roger C. Drolet, a Viatorian priest, who is doing missionary work in Supinkai, Manchoukuo, Asia.

The idol is hand-carved from a piece of coal and measures five inches across and ten inches high. It comes from a Chinese home converted by Father Drolet to Christianity.

Because of war conditions, it was sent here in a round-about way, first going to a Catholic monastery in Canada from where it was obtained by Brother Ryan of the Viatorians who, in turn, delivered it to Mr. Drolet.

The idol has been loaned to the Knights of Columbus who will display it Thursday evening during a dinner meeting in honor of the past grand knights of the lodge.

Superhighway Plan of Chicago Nipped

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—(AP)—The Illinois supreme court today knocked out the proposed $60,000,000 Chicago superhighway financing program.

The plan contemplated issuance by the city of Chicago and by Cook county notes to be retired from gasoline tax shares within 20 years, for the purpose of constructing a metropolitan trunk highway system. The city and county each get one-third share of the Illinois three cents per gallon gasoline tax.

Holding this would create a state debt without a referendum, the court found the plan unconstitutional also because it attempted to authorize state officials to pledge state funds for the 20 year period, thereby restricting powers of the legislature.

The financing proposal was contained in legislation passed by the Illinois general assembly last year.

Weird Story of a Crime Partnership in Warren, Ark.

Warren, Ark., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Federal agents drew from a 23-year-old prisoner here today a weird story of a crime partnership with a convicted killer's wife that resulted in the hitch-hike slaying of a Houston, Texas, traveling salesman.

E. L. Richmond, agent in charge of the Little Rock federal bureau of investigation, announced that the prisoner, booked as Harold Pinnon Burkes, confessed early today to his part in the killing of the salesman, Joseph P. Calloway, near Lake Charles, La., last Wednesday.

Richmond said the confession substantiated one made previously to Louisiana officials by Mrs. Claude D. Henry, 24, Beaumont, Texas, who admitted firing the shot that killed Calloway as he knelt nude before her and prayed for his life in a rice field near Lake Charles.

Burkes, alias William Lloyd Adams, was arrested here last yesterday by a federal agent, Sheriff C. W. Hickman and Deputy Sheriff Frank Belin.

Richmond gave the following account of the man's story.

Burkes, using the alias Adams, and Mrs. Henry met at Beaumont, shortly after her husband, Claude "Cowboy" Henry had been sent to Huntsville, Texas, prison to serve a 50-year sentence for the slaying of a San Antonio special officer.

Mrs. Henry wanted him to assist her in liberating her husband from the Huntsville prison.

Burkes persuaded the woman an effort to stage a prison delivery would be unsuccessful and the two decided to come to Arkansas, rob a bank and obtain money with which to work for Henry's release.

They were picked up by Calloway on the highway. Later, they locked him in the rumble seat of his car. Near Lake Charles, they decided to take his clothing and leave him nude in a field so he could not quickly spread an alarm.

Richmond quoted Burkes as saying Mrs. Henry Marched Calloway through the field at gun point and then told him (Burkes) to go back and start the car so they could make a get-away. While clambering over a fence he heard a shot, looked back and saw Mrs. Henry running toward him. He told Richmond that when he asked what had happened she responded: "Shut your damn mouth and get going."

Many Injured in Blast at Elkton, Maryland, Today

Elkton, Md., Feb. 21.—(AP)—One man was killed and at least 13 persons injured today when a powder magazine of Triumph Explosives Inc. blew up, setting afire small buildings nearby.

The dead man was believed to be John Baker, 21, of Elkton.

Little hope was held for the recovery of Charles Gatchell, 22, who was burned about the body.

Firemen brought the blaze under control.

The cause was not learned immediately.

CHECK ARTIST HERE

Merchants in Kankakee and neighboring towns were warned today by police that a check artist is operating in this area. Yesterday a young woman, accompanied by a 5-year-old child, passed a worthless check for $6.50, using the name "Mrs. C. W. Summers." Issuing the check on the First Trust and Savings bank, and offering her social security card as identification. She had no account at the bank.

NEW FRONTIER FOR INDUSTRY NEEDED IN U. S.

170 Businessmen of City Hear Dynamic Address

Two talks which packed a wallop in every oratorical jab were delivered by able speakers before a responsive audience of 170 Kankakee businessmen Tuesday evening in the Hotel Kankakee.

This double feature program of the chamber of commerce carded Capt. A. A. Nicholson, personnel director of The Texas company, in a talk on human relations in the open, while in the windup Merle H. Foster, Oak Park merchant, delivered a stinging blow to public lethargy with remarks on "Let's Do Something About It."

In punch-filled phrases, Capt. Nicholson hammered home evidence that "America is the land of milk and honey only for those willing to go forth into the pasture before daylight and gather it."

More: Understanding

He asserted nothing is wrong with America itself. Its big problem is social-human relationships—how to restore understanding, get selfish thinkers to lay aside butterfly nets and quit purloining from posterity, stop governmental harassment of business and industry, let them regulate their own households and bring peace inside the nation as well as outside.

"The new industrial frontier—better human relations—must be based upon a sound and reliable understanding," the speaker declared. "No one desires the importance of purifying the political scene. No one can deny the gravity of our economic dilemma. No one will gild the moral responsibility of lending aid to underprivileged classes. But of all problems confronting American people, none is greater than that of establishing a sound and sympathetic relationship between those who lead and those who follow."

To continue to live and work in a free country where the abundant life is still possible, Capt. Nicholson said, "we must be willing to share the responsibilities as well as the benefits."

Warns of Danger

Unless America anchors to the permanent rock of sound, healthy relationships, it may one day discover that the magnificent technological development which it labels business and industry will become a great and insidious onslaught of international origin, according to Nicholson.

Describing this country as just one big industrial neighborhood—the composite of small business and industry—he said the United States government is the nation's biggest business, requiring eight billion dollars a year, or $1,000,000 an hour to operate.

With the government consistently going into the red, the national debt has increased 50 per cent in the past five years and is now

Spanish War Vets Stage "Maine Day"

A Maine day memorial was observed Tuesday evening at the meeting of the United Spanish War Veterans in the G. A. R. room of the courthouse, members of other patriotic organizations being guests.

Attorney John E. Holland, a veteran of the world war, was the principal speaker. Since the occasion was the anniversary of the sinking of the battleship Maine in Manila harbor in which 266 American officers and sailors lost their lives and which precipitated the declaration of war by the United States against Spain, the speaker used that for the theme of his talk.

He pointed out that from this war a number of important facts arose: It united the north and south; brought about recognition of the United States as a world power; gained wealth for this country; wiped out the yellow fever scourge; made this country realize the need for adequate national defense.

Commander Henry Bauer presided at the meeting. Entertainment was provided by Betty Ann Betourne and Suzanne Palmer.

Among the heads of organizations present were E. J. LeBeau of the G. A. R. society, Mrs. A. J. Chouinard, U. S. W. V. auxiliary and Mrs. Florence Link of the V. F. W. auxiliary.

REDS MASS 800 PLANES IN BIG FINNISH RAIDS

Largest Bombing Attack in History of Aviation

Stockholm, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Seven Russian bombing planes today swooped between 30 and 40 bombs on the Swedish frontier village of Pajala, setting many buildings afire but causing no casualties, dispatches from the border region reported.

Four buildings in Pajala, a village of 3,000 inhabitants five miles from the Finnish frontier, were destroyed and others set afire by the raiders, who descended to 3,000 feet before unloading their bomb cargo.

"The Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet said half the town was burning."

The terrified inhabitants had brief warning of the approaching planes from the village of Kengis, which is closer to the frontier. Thus most residents were able to find refuge. Many fled to the fields, others crouched in their homes.

Several bombs fell within 100 feet of the Pajala church, where some villagers were huddled.

When the attack ended the Soviet planes followed the frontier about 20 miles before disappearing over Finland.

MOTHER ADMITS KILLING CHILD; CAN'T EXPLAIN

Los Angeles, Feb. 21.—(UP)—Dr. Paul J. De Rivers, an alienist, announced today that his preliminary examination of Mrs. Betty Hardaker, 26, who killed her five year old child by dropping her head down onto a concrete floor, indicated that she was sub-normal.

Mrs. Hardaker was recently released from a sanitarium.

"She was too good to live," Mrs. Hardaker sobbed when arrested in Palm Springs yesterday. "I didn't want her to lead the kind of life I had lived or endure what I did. I can't explain it or the reason I did it. I don't hate her. I love her. I love her. I loved her too much, I guess."

Her estranged husband, Charles, and her mother, Mrs. Elita Karnes, told police that she belonged to a voodoo cult which "thinks God tells them to kill people." She was so

Peasant Boy to Become Tibet Ruler Tomorrow

Chungking, China, Feb. 21.—(AP)—A plump, button-eyed, little peasant boy from China will be enthroned tomorrow at Lhasa as the 14th Dalai Lama, spiritual and temporal leader of Tibet, jubilant Chinese officials reported today.

Choice of the Chinese candidate without the traditional ceremony of drawing ivory or bamboo lots from a golden vase was described by the Chinese as "strengthening the vague sovereignty which China long has held, but scarcely exercised, over Tibet."

The Chinese lad, Linger Lamu-tanchu—Linger the "divine child," under the Tibetan theory of reincarnation—is said to have been born at the exact moment the 13th Dalai Lama died, Dec. 17, 1933.

So were his two rival Tibetan-born candidates, but Chinese officials said the regent Lama had accepted the proposal that these be designated "living Buddhas" and advisers to Linger.

Hotel Aetna in Springfield is Destroyed Today

Springfield, Ill. Feb. 21—(UP)—The Aetna hotel was destroyed by a fire today.

James Cowan was trapped when the fire, believed to have been preceded by an explosion, swept through the structure. Firemen battled his screams and made several rescue attempts but only succeeded after using smoke masks and reaching the building.

One woman, Mrs. Linda Lou Siderer, escaped but having gained the street was back into the flames. She was overcome by smoke but was rescued by firemen. Both she and Cowan were taken to St. John's hospital.

As a result of burns received at his home Monday night, Fred K. Kihlstrom's son, Wilbur, said the burning house and rescued his father who was taken to St. John's hospital where he died yesterday.

Two others, Harold C. Schmidt and two-year-old Edith Brown, both of Springfield, are also recovering from burns received Monday night.

Schmidt, a filling station attendant, saved himself from serious injury yesterday by rolling in snow to extinguish his flaming jacket. He was taken to St. John's hospital where he is recovering.

Edith Brown, a two-year-old girl, was also injured by the fire. She is recovering from burns received Monday night.

ST. PATRICK'S; EVENING'S SEASON'S SERIES

Kankakee Bows To Irish Quint In 25 To 21 Tilt

Irish eyes were smiling down at St. Patrick high school again today when the basketball team dropped to last two state Catholic conference games and thereby surrendered its chances for a slice of the championship. There was good reason, too, for this sudden change of heart in the armory of the Catholics, coached by Bill Walsh, closed their regular season with a victory over Kankakee 25 to 21 in a game which was something of a surprise to the Catholics and followers of the team. They may see a few more of these things in the future, but there along the way, even bog down in the stretch drive of a conference race, but a victory over Kankakee in all of these things is not the forgotten past.

St. Patrick's victory last night left the city prep championship dance in mid-air until next season, unless officials of both schools follow an idea used several years ago, decide to grant for the title after the two schools have finished competition in post-season games. Kankakee won the first game last December 21 to 19, and there is little doubt that a third game, if it is possible to arrange such a match, would draw a large crowd.

St. Patrick surged in front of Kankakee shortly after the opening of the second quarter, although midway of the third period a Kankakee rally threatened to shake the Catholics at the close of the first quarter, 8 to 7, but failed. Although the Irish went cold for a stretch during the fourth quarter, they were able to pull out a victory in the end. Kankakee's attack was led by Coach Johnny Bryant, who was in the game for the first time in three months to play on a four person team. Orman took the place of the injured player, and was as tough as a lion in his sharpshooting, shared St. Pat's scoring honors, each having seven points.

Despite the slump into which both sides plunged a fortnight ago, and thereby lost all of their conference championships, they were in fighting trim last night—something which usually exists when the two square off.

Kankakee closes its regular schedule with a game at St. Patrick's Suburban box, here Friday night, when St. Patrick goes into the Catholic college ranks at Springfield Friday afternoon against Community High of Sterling.

Catching A Few Off First:

By ORREN ALLAIN

Desiring to know what it would cost to stage an amateur boxing show in Kankakee, a reader submitted a query to this department yesterday. Displaying the swift wit with which this corner handles such matters, we received this item last night from one who has previously promoted here:

Cash bond guarantee to abide by rules, regulations of A. U. 100; A. A. U. sanction fee, per conference race, but a victory over Kankakee in all of these things is not the forgotten past.

RUMANIAN OIL PROBLEM SEEMS TO BE SETTLED

Allies Claim Even Break with the Germans

London, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The tug-of-war between the allies and Germany over Rumanian oil for the machines of war has been resolved to the satisfaction of Great Britain and France, an informed source indicated today.

Allied satisfaction was said to spring from assurance that Rumania would not discriminate in favor of Germany in supplying this vital war commodity.

It was reported that Rumania told Britain she would allot Germany 1,500,000 tons of oil this year, but that transportation difficulties probably would hamper delivery, just as they prevented delivery of some of the 1,300,000 tons assigned to Germany in 1939.

Violett Virgil Tillea, Rumanian minister to London, handed to Foreign Secretary Lord Halifax yesterday the Rumanian reply to Britain's expression of concern over the new Rumanian oil control board, which bosses production, including that of British and French-owned properties.

Believe Fears Removed
The note was not made public, but authoritative sources said a mutually satisfactory discussion was held and gave the impression that the reply removed fears that Germany might be favored.

Some newspapers jubilantly announced that the effect of the Rumanian regulations would be a decrease in the amount of oil sent to Germany, but that such interpretation was "a trifle premature" and that "the government's estimate of the new position has not yet been defined."

Establishment of the control board had raised such doubts in London that officials reconsidered the whole question of British and Rumanian trade, giving rise to published assertions that Britain secretly had stopped all exports to Rumania pending a satisfactory settlement.

In another stab at British shipping and air defenses, German bombers ranged along the east coast yesterday.

Damage inflicted by the German airmen on ships still was unreported by the British today, but in Berlin DNB, official German news agency, announced the day's operations included the sinking of two British minelayers and one armed merchant ship.

The reported decree is in direct contradiction with an arrangement made with Germany's trade envoy, Dr. Karl Clodius, a few weeks ago by which Rumania agreed to increase her shipments of aviation oil provided that increased export taxes were paid.
